APQI - Collective Awareness Platforms for Quality Internships	Education plays a key role for young people’s integration into the labor market through the provision and facilitation of internships \traineeships. Internships\traineeships are essential in bridging the skills gap between education and world of work. However, there is a lack of collective awareness around the quality standards of an internship and the absence of a public and collaborative mechanism to control the quality of internships in practice. This greatly hinders the mobility of interns\trainees as no common guidance exists yet at the European level. The partners of this project consortium will thus create a standard and a certification scheme defining a quality internship and the learning outcomes it bring to young people, undergraduate and graduate. They will make this standard valid for the whole Europe taking into consideration the national practices and therefore contributing to the harmonization of a European area of skills and qualifications.	Internship quality	UNIVERSIDAD DE ALCALA (coordinator) EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION-CAMPUS EUROPAE InternsGoPro SAS ERASMUS STUDENT NETWORK INSTITUTO POLITÉCNICO DO PORTO INTER.
